AUDRORIPTION TO THE EVENING EDITION (Including Postage), PER MONTH, 30c. ; PER YEAR, $3.50.

The following comparison is an exact record of the actual, regular, bona-fide editions of THE WORLD printed during the week preceding and

Week bar	ora election.	After election.
Senday	267,360	265,500
Monday	262,510	265,540
Taesday	257,060	259,560
Wednesday	258,660	317,940
Thursday	253,680	284,250
Friday	260,180	377,850
Saturday	256,050	203,070
Weekly and Semi-
Weekly	107,420	107,060
Totula	.922,920	2,170,860

who supply the white paper used by the New York Woman, hereby pertify that we have carefully examined the above statement of circulation, and nly swear that it corresponds with the at of white paper supplied by us, used by THE WORLD and charged up to them (in accordonce with our method of charging THE WORLD MACH DAY ONLY THE PAPER ACTUALLY USED AND PRINTED) during the two weeks specified.

> BULKLEY, DUNTON & Co., BULKLEY, DUNTON & CO.,
> by DAVID G. GABABHANT.
> YORK HAVEN PAPER CO.
> SUBQUEHANNA WATER-POWER > AND PAPER CO.
> GLENS FALLS PAPER MILL CO.,
> by Wm. B. DILLON, > Manager of Sales.
> W. H. PARBONS & CO.,
> by W. H. PARBONS.

Blate of New York, City and County of New York, se. lly appeared before me DAVID G. GARABRANT, p. Dunton & Co.; WM. B. DILLON, manage les for the York Haven Paper Co., the Susquehar er-Power and Paper Co. and Glona Falls Paper Mil, and W. H. Pansona, of W. H. Parsona & Co., who, being known to me, did append their signature sto and swore that the foregoing statement is true WILLIAM I. SHIMER er of Deeds, City and County of New York.

New York, Nov. 19, 1887.

ADVERTISING RATES. (Agate Measurement.)

Ordinary, 25 cents per line. No extra price for ac display. Business or Special Notices, opposite il page, 50 cents per line. Reading Notices, e marked "Advt.": First page, $1.50 per urth page, $1.25 per line; Inside page, $1

The rates for advertising in the Daily WORLD do not ap ply to the Evening issue. Nor do the rates of that issue

A NEW TRIAL FOR SHARP.

Any decision of the Court of Appeals should command respect. Both press and public should be slow to find fault with the deliberate verdict of the highest court in the

And yet the action of the Court of Appeals in reversing the decision of the lower courts and ordering a new trial for Jacob Shanp is a very remarkable phase of jurisprudence.

There are certain extraordinary facts that can not be gainsaid. First-No ruling of Judge BARRETT in a criminal case has heretofore been reversed. Second-The selections of Judges Potten and Rugen to hear the motions for appeal were occasions of unfavorable comment the part of Bench. Bar and public. Third-This decision was discounted in this city two or three weeks ago. Counsel for Sharp have reiterated their confidence in the result.

The decision, to say the least, is unfortu nate in its general effect. It will give an im pression of the power of money rather than of the impartiality of justice. The poor boodlers languish in Sing Sing. But the rich offender escapes punishment temporarily and hopes to avoid it altogether.

THE NATIONAL CONVENTIONS.

Five cities are contesting for the honor and profit of being selected as the meeting-place of the national conventions.

New York, which has the least need of the influx of strangers and the incidental shekeldistribution, is unquestionably the fittest place on many accounts

This State, and that portion of it within radius of ten miles of City Hall, will probably decide the Presidential election. This is therefore a good spot to work in any help which a convention might give to the campaign. Here, too, is the great centre of news-distribution. Neither hotels nor a hall would need to be improvised.

And still the West is a great country.

FORFEIT THE CHARTERS.

The Chicago City Council has found the light weapon with which to fight the Trusts. It calls for legal proceedings to forfeit the charter of every gas company in the city that has "pooled" its stock in the Chicago Gas Trust.

The Trust has secured control of all the companies, and advanced the price of gas 25 per cent.

The companies were chartered by the people, to serve the public. When they merge themselves in a monopoly to rob the public their charters should be repealed. Trounce the Trusts!

OLD PROB'S PREAK.

The cold snap is no doubt regarded by Gen. NEWTON as a vindication.

But as one swallow doesn't make a spring, neither does one cold wave make a winter. There will be three weeks of safe digging yet if December shall be no colder than the

Let reason and not red tape rule.

A RECORD OF HEROISM.

No department of Government work makes a better showing than the Life-Saving Service. During the last year it has assisted 332 disabled or stranded vessels and saved 6,272 lives and $5,788,820 worth of property.

The record of the service is a record of plam. Especially during the past year has the press furnished abundant evidence of dauntless devotion to hardy duty on the as Painted," long the coasts.

The attempt of some politicians to apply their spoils theory to this service savors almost of sacrilege. Let them keep their hands off. No party brand can make or unmake a hero, and that is the sort of stuff required a the life-saving stations. GIVE IT PROMPTLY.

JACOB SHARP has been granted a new trial Let it be promptly given him. No new preparation is needed. The facts are palpable and proven. The evidence declared to have been improperly admitted is not neces-

To leave the veteran rich briber long at liberty would scandalize justice. Let the new trial be set for an early day.

MOST'S DESIRE.

All the witnesses on Herr Mosr's side, while affirming that his speech was like the mournful cooing of a dove, admit that he did express a strong desire to see the executioner of the Chicago Anarchists-" only to be introduced to him."

This does not necessarily imply that Most lesired to execute the executioner. Perhaps he only wanted to test his own nerve by confronting the man who had made Anarchism unhealthy out West. Perhaps he wanted to ask the instrument of the law if he supposed hanging really hurts much. Perhaps he wished to beg the "minion" to repent, and join the "JOHANN MOST Peace Society," and become a lamb

That he meditated personal injury is not probable. Big words and beer foam do not hurt hangmen.

MORE THAN A MONOPOLY.

The word "monopoly" gives but an inadequate idea of the nature of the Standard Oil Trust. There is indeed no one word in the language that expresses the full meaning. for the simple reason that no such organization was ever before known in the history of the world.

The Standard Oil is not only a monopoly, but an utterly unscrupulous, conscienceless combination of commercial buccaneers. Composed of soulless cornorations its history proves it to be totally devoid of principle, blind to everything but dollars, deaf to everything but the clink of gold.

It is born not only of monopoly, but iniquity. Who will give it a name?

The proposed Burial Reform Association certainly has much to commend it. What with exorbitant undertakers' bills and the prevailing ostentation at funerals, dying has become very expensive.

Such extravagant expenditure serves no good purpose. It is opposed by clergy and church. Only the undertakers, the florists, the hackmen, the monument makers and a senseless fashion favor the lavish display.

With the poor the funeral expenses are very serious matter. The draft upon their slender means is often made at a time when they are least able to bear it. It is a very common case for a poor woman to lose the nainstay of her support, and then to be heavily involved in debt by the funeral.

Respect for the dead should not bring needless suffering to the living.

The Harvard football team protests that it has not protested the recent game in this city, but does not protest that it will not protest hereafter " at the proper time and place." Better reserve it till the next game is played, and then try and leave the other fellows to

A Baltimore man mentions the "good to call the National Presidential Convention there. He must be thinking of the Prohibitionists-the "temperance Republicans" have no use for water at such a time.

Oh, no! It cannot be that HISCOCK and Belden are out. The Senator could never distrust nor quarrel with a truly good politician who has just received the vindication of a popular majority to Congress ten times as big as some of Hiscock's own.

The ridiculous use made of the word 'lady" receives it latest illustration in the challenge of the "champion female athlete of America," who expresses a willingness to ' meet the Pittsburg lady at any time and place she may name.

At last accounts the Administration was not chasing Commissioner E. ELLERY ANDERSON around Washington with a red-hot iron outlining the brand of "Traitor"

HENRY GEORGE announces that he will not retire from politics. Politics seems, however, to have retired from HENRY GROEGE to a very considerable extent.

The General Term Judges must join the public in concluding that "the law" is, like the proverbial white man, "mighty onsartin,"

If SULLIVAN and MITCHELL really meet for business," politics and public affairs will suffer a temporary celipse in England.

The people find it very difficult to retain their respect for the law sometimes, but they try hard to do it.

JACOB SHARP's bail should be high enough to make his selection of a foreign home very expensive

The boodlers in Sing Sing and the exiles in Canada must envy "the old man" his luck

JAMES J. BELDEN is a very kind-hearted man and an excellent legal adviser of counsel.

It is slow work making bribery dangerous in this town.

A thrilling story in THE WORLD to-morrow evening: "The Devil's Card; or, Not so Black part of the life-savers of the great lakes and SHOP WORK IN THE COUNTRY.

CITY GIRLS HEAVILY HANDICAPPED IN COM-PETITION WITH FARMERS' GIRLS.

How the Country Women Cot Down the Wages of Poor People in New York City-Five Hundred of Them at Work for One Firm-Few of Them Obliged to Take Sewing for a Living.

PATERSON, N. J., Nov. 29 .- A further investigation by a World reporter into the business of distributing city shop work through Passaic and adjoining counties has revealed a stendily increasing business, the extent of which few people realize. New points of distribution are being established, and more agents are being employed in this new phase of women's labor. Thoughtlessly. no doubt, at first, the stout, healthy farmers wives and daughters were led into a competition against their less fortunate sisters in the large commercial centres. Although the city woman little suspected it the reason why the shop work manufacturer has been enabled to continuously cut down her meagre weekly pittance, it has been because he had led the women in the country to compete against

In this strife the advantages are nearly all upon one side and against the shop girls in the cities, who are compelled, by adverse circumstances to labor at shop work for a livelihood. With them it is a desperate handto-mouth struggle for the absolute necessities of life. To them the landlord comes around with the first day of the month. A few cents' reduction in the price paid for 'finishing" a dozen shirts or waists means an anguish that no one can realize who has not been in want. Not fancied want, but the want of warmth, food, shelter or sufficient lothing to go about in to perform daily The city woman is compelled to live in the house of many floors and many occupants.

Her quarters are narrow and dark. The pile of fuel necessary to keep them habitable is jealously watched for fear of waste.

How different it is in the country! There, How different it is in the country! There, large, airy rooms, with the pure sunlight streaming in through many windows, and a bright, glowing fire sending forth ample heat and cheerfulness. In most of the houses visited there were two or more workers busy. Their merry laugh and happy mien were in striking contrast to the appearance and circumstances of those whom they ance and circumstances of those whom they were forcing to greater distress. No rent to pay, no added fuel to buy, a man or boy to keep the fire going and bring in the wood or coal. Every flash of the busy little needle and every turn of the unwinding spool of thread meant smaller wages for those, women like them, sisters in want, who, for reasons of various causes, were compelled to compete against health and strength, which must in the end drive poverty to the wall.

the end drive poverty to the wall. THE PIONEERS IN THE BUSINESS. The pioneers in this country branch of shop work, so far as can be learned, were Levi & Price, New York manufacturers, who built a mill in Paterson about fifteen years ago. Paterson was selected because of the large number of farmers who visit it weekly the year around to market their produce, which is sold on the open street or delivered which is sold on the open street or delivered to private customers.

In most of these farm wagons a wife or daughter is sure to be found. She can stay in the wagon while the farmer carries away his goods. The Manhattan Shirt Mills, as Levi & Price called their new venture, was built in River street, through which most of the farmers drive to the Main street market. Signs of inducement were hung out to the Signs of inducement were hung out to the country people, and the market wagons soon began to stop at the shirt mill on their way home, until twenty at a time could be counted there on a big market day.

A little work was given, to be returned the next week. The farmers' wives and daugh-ters told others, and the new source of revenue became county talk. enue became county talk.

Driving through the country to-day, it is no uncommon sight to see before each window of a farm-house a woman or girl busy working with a sowing-machine. If the visitor will enter the house he will find them for will there the house he will mad them corking on shirts or waists. When spoken o they say manufactured, or as they term it, 'boughten' things are prettier than home-nade. They say that by doing shop work they get money to buy what they want

NOT FOR A LIVING, BUT FOR LUXURIES. In some cases the work is done to really earn a living, but in most cases this is not true in the country, where the husbands or fathers of the workers own their homes, and where the expenses are met by money from where the expenses are met by money from the outside work.

The World reporter in this travels was shown a set of furniture, a new carpet, a set of curtains, and, in one case, a wedding outfit bought by money earned at shop work. One woman said that her husband had more than $1,000 saved up to build a house, and she was working to get money "to furnish it nice." In another instance the man possessed property that could be sold for $15,000. His wife was working at the machine to buy a set of fine curtains for her parlor.

wife was working at the machine to buy a set of fine curtains for her parlor.

Levi & Price, after three years, separated. The original plant was kept by Levi & Wechsler. They have 120 families stopping at their mills for work, and many of the farm-wagons on the market will be found to carry a bundle of finished shirts to be left at the mills on the way home, as the farmers come to Paterson in the middle of the night. It was found necessary to have instructors come to Paterson in the middle of the night. It was found necessary to have instructors and distributors in the new work to teach and supply new hands and those who can not drive to Paterson. Men were taken to the factory, and taught the quickest and best way of doing the work. Then they were sent out as agents for the firm. They now have two of these who drive through three counties.

HOW ONE AGENT WORKS IT.

David Allen, one of the men, lives on the line between the States of New Jersey and New York, which gives him a central location for the two counties of Bergen and Rockland, through which he works. He has several machines at his home where he will teach beginners until they are competent to take shop work home. He has taught numbers of others at their homes.

Creating a demand for sewing-machines, he added an agency for them to his other work. His home at Chestnut Ridge is fourteen miles from Paterson. He works as far as

His home at Chestnut Ridge is fourteen miles from Paterson. He works as far as Nyack, eleven miles beyond. He gets his shirts from Paterson, all cut out and partly sewed together. At first he gave a shirt to one woman to complete. But now, he says, he subdivides the work, giving one the bosom to sew in, another the neck bands and wrist bands to sew on, and a third the bottonholes and hems to pasks. This he claims makes and hems to make. This, he claims, maker and hems to make. This, he claims, makes experts in their lines and expedites matters much. He handles as high as 3,300 shirts a week. He has more than three hundred women employed. Some of these do little, and very few as much as they can. He said that he had one girl who carned $6 a week, but he refused to give the prices that he paid. He has had to struggle for his work and to keep his territory.

and to keep his territory.

During the past summer R. H. Macy & Co., of Fourteenth street, New York, opened a factory in Nyack and placed it in charge of Miss Wood. A wagon route was started and work was distributed by agents, but the and work was distributed by agents, but the factory was closed this fall.

Henry B. Bothschild, of West Broadway, Klingenstein Bros., of 81 Walker street, Myer Crans, of Walker street, Litchenstein & Lyons, and Miller & Son, all of New York, also established agents.

Mr. Alleu's field includes the towns of Spring Valley, Monsey, Pearl River, Clarksville, Bardon, Blauveltsville, Nyack, Piermont and Tappan in Rockland County, New York, and Park Ridge, Mont Vale, River Vale, Paskack, Hillsdale and West Wood in Bergen County, New Jersey. This season he

John Remsen, the second out-door agent, is paid a fixed salary. He lives in Paterson, He drives a double team, and is on the road five days in the week. His best route, he says, is in Bergen and Rockland counties, along the line of the Eric Railroad to Sufferus, twenty miles from Paterson. In this drive he distributes in the towns of Riverside, Ridgewood, Hohokus, Allendale, Ramseys and Mahwah. He stays at Sufferus all night, and crossing the mountains, as it is called, at Masonicus, and returns to Paterson by way of the towns of Campgan, Wyckoff, Wortendyke and Midland Park. Another trip is west of Paterson, through Passaic County and the towns of Pompton, Preakness, Bloomfield and Butler.

A third route is by way of Clifton, Lake ANOTHER FIELD OF COMPETITION

Preakness, Bloomfield and Butler.
A third route is by way of Clifton, Lake View, Passaie, Franklin and Belleville to Newark, where the firm opened a branch establishment a year and a balf ago. This was done, they said, to catch the country workers, Newark being another large market centre for farmers for miles around in all directions.

Remsen said that he supplied about two hundred hands. This, with the number who work for Allen and those who work directly for the mills, shows about how many country women are employed by this firm alone in competition with the shop girls of New York.

THE BOY PIANIST.

Any one who wants to make a success as a planist nowadays must possess exceptional ability, for there is no instrument on this earth that has been so fatally abused, and of which people are becom-

Who has not suffered from the exquisite anguish of the "instruction book" with its hideous "Leila's a Lady," "The Swiss Boy " and "Cherry Ripe"? Who has not wept the scalding tears of bitter distress as he listened to the practising of some misguided maiden, and cursed the days when planos were invented?

Ah! the piano is frequently cruel, often despised of men, and always looked upon with distrust. In the saion it is the accompaniment to conversation; in the hotel it is the terror of the guests: in the home it is simply tragic. Yet at Wallack's yesterday afternoon a tiny boy clad in a sailor's suit, with plump face of breadand-butter health and an expression of childish satisfaction, sat down to one of the hackneved instruments, and in less than an hour had roused a thoroughly critical andience to wonderful enthu siasm. Young Josef Hofmann, extensively advertised by

Mr. Henry E. Abbey as the musical marvel of the age, gave a private concert to the press and Mr. Abbey's friends. The result snowed that nothing had been exaggerated about the child, and that he is indeed simply a musical marvel. I hate gushing in the superlative, but frankly playing surpassed. It is magnificent.

He gave Mendelssohn's "Rondo Capriccioso superbly. (I don't think I've used that superlative before). But he was most successful in one of Chopin's waltzes—an extremely difficult one. His execution was extremely brilliant, his touch staccata and sure, and his rendition absolutely correct. Nothing better could have been heard. If young Hofmann clayed only this waltz he would be worth paying to hear.

Papa Cassemer Hotmann did some variations on theme by Beethoven, arranged by Saint Saens, with the boy, and though a duet is not much of a test as to the ability of either one of the players, it was evident that young Josef did some extremely effective work. He also played a mazourka and polonaise of his own composition, of which it is not necessary to say very much. Then Rudolph Aronson blushingly suggested ten bars or so of his exquisite two-by-the-hour waitzes and young Hofmann elaborated upon it in a truly artistic manner, while the audience went wild with de-

After the regital I spoke to young Hofmann, but found he was too young and innocent to be interviewed. He didn't even know enough to say that he loved America and the dear Americans, and was oh! so glad to be here.

WORLDLINGS.

Prof. Bell has constructed a machine on the general principles of the typewriter, for facilitat-The fortune of Chris Von der Ahe, the baseball nan, is computed at $200,000. It has all been made out of the great American game. Jacob Unden, a carpenter at Duluth, Minn., fell ago, but he is still living and enjoying good health.

from a scaffold and broke his neck several weeks Ensign Stowe, of Caro, Mich., was leading a ow to pasture when the animal gave a sudden jerk on the rope and pulled his thumb completely

Mrs. George Winter, of Cincinnati, recently Mrs. George Winter, of Cincinnati, recently white roses. The couple will stand under an arch of flowers.

Mrs. Joshua J. Henry, of 14 East Tenth three years ago and which lodged in one of her lungs.

Russell Sage eats cracked wheat for breakfast 365 days in the year and is very fond of baker apples. He is also very partial to bread and butter with a thick spread of honey on it.

Abraham Burbank, who died in Pittsneld, Mass., the other day, worth $800,000 was a stone and brick mason, and worked at his trade until a few days before his death. A trowel was his only possession when he settled in Pittsfield in 1834. A burglar entered the house of Mr. C. F. Jan

nosch, in Kalamazoo, Mich, one night last week and was passing through the dining-room when a parrot in the room called out loudly : "What are you doing there?" The bird's cry aroused Mr. Jannosch, and the burglar fled in haste. The remains of a prehistoric race of giants have frequently been dug up at St. Augustine, Fla., and last week, in excavating for a cellar, a workman disinterred an immense iron crowbar which must have been used by the unknown aborigines. It is ten feet long, tapering at each end to a sharp point, and weighs 190 pounds. The people of Chico. Cal., are trying to solve the Chinese question by colonizing the obnoxious Celestials just outside the city limits. Gen. Bidwell has given ten acres of land for the purpose and the city agrees to furnish lumber enough to erect houses and all the water that may be needed. free of charge. A clause in the will of John J. Hicks, who died in San Francisco recently, read: "I bequeath to Fifty-eighth street, will give an my dear children my undying love, which I hope they will as lovingly accept and retain towards each other. This precious gift will not pertsh with my body, but will live for them throughout all the ages of eternity." When Mr. W. H. Heaton, of Glassboro', N. J. was a guest at a Philadelphia hotel more than twenty years ago, a thief stole his watch, Last week he received by express a small parcel containing a handsome gold watch and a note which "In this box you will find a gold watch to be recognized as a substitute for the one taken from your room in a Philadelphia hotel in TSAS. "

Scott's Miners All Discharged.

[SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.]
PITTSBURG, Nov. 22.—A most significant an mportant move in connection with Congressman's refusal to pay the 5 per cent, advance occurred yesterday at Haven. William Duncan, the superlatendent, of the "Coal King's" two 1 its, known as the Southwest and Duncan Hollow, in compliance with an order from Mr. Scott discharged all the men and suspended operations until further instruc-

New England Depot at Hartford Burned.

HARTFORD, CORR., Nov. 29.—The temporary assenger station of the New York and New Engtailroad in this city, a frame atructure, was destroyed by fire at 9 o'clock this morning.

will have a man to drive about for him. He THE DRIFT OF SOCIETY TALK.

THREE WEDDINGS, A RECEPTION AND A MUSICALE THIS EVENING.

Mr. R. A. Macready and Miss Katherine Motley to be Married at 504 Fifth Avenue -Mr. Frederic Taber Cooper to Wed Miss Edith Redfield in the West Presbyterian Church-Other Social Events.

HURCH weddings which will be cele-brated at 8.30 o'clock this evening at 504 Rev. Arthur Brooks.

will not be in favor to-day, three of to-day's brides being married at home. A very pretty wedding will be that of Mr. R. A. Macready and Miss Katherine Motley, daughter of the late James M. Motley.

assisted by the Rev. Ferry, an uncle of the bride officiating. The bride will wear a white satin lace. The corsage will be decollete and the veil of talle. The diamond necklace worn is a gift from her brother, Mr. T. M. Motley. The other diamonds to be worn Motley. The other diamonds to be worn were presented by the groom's mother and the groom. The bride will carry a bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Mr. W. Macready will be the best man. Mr. Dunbar Wright, Mr. Elisha Walker, Mr. Walter Watson and Mr. James' M. Motley will be the ushers. The bridesmaids will be Miss Estelle Doremus and Miss Josephine Stone. They will wear rose faille, with front They will wear rose faille, with front of silver and tulle, made walking length.
The long drawing-rooms will be decorated, one in pink and the other with yellow roses. The couple will stand during the under an arch of ferns and roses. The bride will be given away by her brother, Mr. T. M. will be given away by her brother, Mr. T. M Motley. The presents are very handsome including many fine diamonds and bronzes The presents are very handsome, including many fine diamonds and bronzes. The reception after the ceremony will last until 11 o'clock to-night.

The marriage of Mr. Frederic Taber Cooper and Miss Edith Redfield, daughter of Amasa A. Redfield, will take place this evening at 11 o'clock at the West Presbyterian Church. The Rev. William H. Cooke, of Trinity Parish, an uncle of the bride, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Paxton, will officiate. The weddinggown will be of rich French faille with train. The front drapery will be of old English lace, made to order for the occasion. The tulle well will be fastened with lace, made to order for the occasion. The tulle veil will be fastened with orange blossoms. The bouquet will be of white roses. Miss Edith Stratton will be the maid of honor. She will wear draperies of braided tulle over white silk. Miss Eliza Gridley, Miss Nellio Davis, Miss Annie Whitney, Miss Phobe Gridley, Miss Mabel Lines and Miss Mamie Cooke, a coutsin of the bride, will be the bridesmaids. The first two in the bridal procession will wear ross tulle over Faille, and the last will be in canary color, all carrying baskets of flowers in their hands and wearing aigrettes to match their gowns.

in their hands and wearing aigrettes to match their gowns,
Mr. Robert Latimer Redfield will be the best man and Mr. Charles Cushman, Mr. Stevens, Mr. Henry Buck, Mr. J. B. Elmendorf, Mr. Henry Leonard and Mr. Luis J. Phelps will be the ushers. The bride will be given away by her father. The reception after the wedding will be at the home of the bride's parents, 68 West Forty-eighth street. Mazzetti serves the supper. Among the guests expected are the following-named persons: persons:

Judge and Mrs. George C. Barrett, the Rev. and Mrs. William H. Cooke, Judge and Mrs. Larremore, the Misses Larremore, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Cooke, Judge and Mrs. Brady, Mr. and Mrs. David Ivison, the Misses Ivison, Judge and Mrs. Henry Bookstaver, Judge and Mrs. George M. Van Hoesen, Dr. and Mrs. Ratines, Mr. and Mrs. George Pier, Mr. and Mrs. Ratines, Mr. and Mrs. George Pier, Mr. and Mrs. James K. Mason, Judge and Mrs. Noah Davis, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bunner, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Buck, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pierps, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Warner, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Abbott and Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Allen.

Mr. Henry L. Wolff and Miss Lisett Mr. Henry L. Wolff and Miss Lisette Beinhauer will be married at 7 o'clock this evening at 312 West Fifty-eighth street, the home of the bride's father, Mr. F. Bein-hauer. The Rev. Dr. Oerter, of the First Reformed Dutch Church, will officiate. There will be no bridesmaids. Messrs, Louis Roth, August Wolff, Augustus Bein-hauer and Alfred Beinhauer will be the ush-ers. The bride will wear a gown of heavy white moirs with train and front of white moire, with train, and front of duchesse lace. The corsage will be high and the tulle veil will be secured with dia-mond pins. There will be other diamond ornaments worn. The bouquet will be of white roses. The couple with the roses.

Mrs. Joshua J. Henry, of 14 East Tenth street, will give a reception this afternoon from 4 until 7 o'clock, in the same drawing-room in which she herself was married, in honor of her son, Mr. Howard Henry, and his bride, and Miss Mary Strong, Miss Henry, Miss Parsons and Miss Mary Strong, Miss Henry, Miss Parsons and Miss Marshall, the bridesmaids at the farmer for a full minute and then recent wedding will assist in receiving. Mrs.

Henry will wear her wedding to him. He looks as if he carried a beet in his pockets. Guess in his pockets. Guess in his pockets. Guess Alles Mary Strong, Miss Henry, Miss Parsons and Miss Marshall, the bridesmaids at the recent wedding will assist in receiving. Mrs. Howard Henry will wear her wedding gown of white satin and moire, with high corsage, and the bridesmaids the white silks, with brocade stripes, worn on the same occasion. Among the guests expected are: Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Strong, Dr. and Mrs. Everett Herrick, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. Barclay Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Herrick, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hoffman Mrs. Harry Allen, Miss Allen and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel B. Allen and many others.

The first musicale of the season will be given by Mrs. W. B. Shattuck, of 128 Fifth avenue, this evening. Mrs. Francis Rurrall Hoffman, Miss Adelo Grant, Miss Paget, Miss Celeste Stauffer, Miss Ashmore, Miss

Hofman, Miss Adelo Grant, Miss Paget, Miss Celeste Stauffer, Miss Ashmore, Miss Cornelia Van Auken, Miss Ada Smith, Miss Butterfield, Miss Ely, Miss Darlington, Miss Richardson, Miss Watson and Miss Blanchard Thompson will assist in receiving. After the musicale a pink supper will be served. The amateurs that will assist in the control of the contro ill be served. The amateurs that will assist ack and Mr. Percy Sherman. The pro-sional talent employed will be Miss Rider, Comstock, Mrs. Dutton and many others. Mrs. Shattuck's musicales were so successful his season at Lenox that she will continue them this winter at her city home. em this winter at her city home. Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Schwab, of 175 West

To Services as Best Man, $100-Paid. ISPECIAL TO THE WORLD,1

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 29. -lt was published recently that Col. Nicholas Smith, the Kentucky beau, had sent Edward J. Ovington, the Paris kid-glove dealer, recently matried to Miss Georgia Maize here, a bill for nearly $200 for his services as best man. Ovington wrote to the editor of a Sunday had been paid $100. He says also that he returned the present given by Smith to the person from whom purchased. This was done because he did whom purchased. This was done to not suppose the present was paid for.

Charged with Embezziement. Charles McGee, an employee of the dry-goods firm of Northeimer & Co., of 500 Broadway, appeared as complainant in the Essex Market Police Court this morning against John S. Wetherell, a truck-driver for the firm, whom he charged with collecting and appropriating to bis own use $70 of his employer's money on Sept. 10. Weterell said that he was authorized by the firm to spend the money in dramming up trade. He was held for trial. Aunte Figgins Insone. Mrs. Annie J. Figgins, who was brought on Blackwell's Island. She imagines that she is an actress and is known on the stage as Annie Nelson. She is the wife of James Figgins, a guard on the elevated road.

Believne Hospital last Friday night, was pronounced

CAPT. GUNNER'S NEW QUARTERS.

The New Untown Station Occupied by Capt Immer and His Men.

HE policemen of the Twenty-fifth Precinct will to-night answer to roll-call in the big hall of the new station in East Sixty - seventh street. It is an imposing-looking structure and is just twenty feet west of the Fire Department Headquarters. There are five stories, the top one being a sort of a tower, from which rises a tall flag.staff. The building is erected on what is known as the "Hamilton land," which, as values run, is worth $60,000. It has a frontage on East Sixty-seventh street of seventy feet. The main structure is sixty feet ten inches deep. With the prison attachment it takes up the whole lot of 102 feet.

coleclock
The lower story is of granite, and the other four of brick, with sandstone trimmings. Two tall lamps shed their light on the five granite steps that lead to the encooks, Rev.
lobbs
leiatless prisoner. Back of the rail a door opens into a business office, in which is the Rogue's Gallery.

Gallery.

Across the hall is the captain's office, off which opens his sleeping apartment. Down the hall on the right are quartered the senior appropriate in a nice, cheerful room with a serious state. sergeants, in a nice, cheerful room with a pretty carpet. On the left is the room where the policemen gather preparatory to marching out.

At the end of the hall is a small door leading into the prison. The cells here are made of boiler iron, and are in the centre of a court. It is next to impossible for a prisoner

The basement is occupied by more cells. bath-rooms for captain, sergeants and patrol-meu, and a drying room for the clothes of policemen who are caught out in the rain. Two stories of the upper floors are occupied by the patrolmen. They are fine, large, airy room, with accommodations for 150 men fourth floor is vacant, while the fifth, which is a long room, is to be fitted up as a gymna-sium. All these rooms are finished in cherry. Electric bells lead to every room, so that the men can be called on at any time by the sergeant at the desk. This will save the roundsman lots of work.

All the bedding, furniture and fittings are

All the bedding, furniture and fittings are new. There are 94 men connected with the station, but they will be increased by 20 men in a short time. The cost of building was $85,000. The house is considered a model one in every respect. There is talk of having a patrol wagon connected with the station. Capt, Gunner, who has command of the Twenty-fifth Precinct, has been on the force twenty-six years, having been appointed in April 1861, and everybody wishes him a happy time in his new quarters. The old building in East Fifty-ninth street is being eagerly sought after

FARMERS ON THE POLICE.

A Source of Anxiety to Cantains Lest Bunco Men Pick Them Up.

been told? A policeman in full uniform was patrolling an uptown street. A stranger in the city approached him and asked the direction of Broad. way. "It's over there somewhere," replied " How far over," inquired the believe," said the policeman. "Keep right ahead until you come to a street where you will see crowds of people and hear a mighty noise—that's Broadway."

The policeman had donned the blue and brass buttons the day before. He was fresh from the sait fields of Onondaya County, and had been appointed through the influence of a country Senator.

It is said on the authority of an expert that there are at least three hundred men on New here are at least three hundred men on Nev York's police force who owe their appointment to rural members of past Legislatures. A majority of these countrymen who are now members of "The Finest" were formerly potato-diggers or threshers of wheat. Many of them had never seen New York until they came here to be examined preliminary to appointment. Once upon a time a tall and very green countryman was appointed a policeman and assigned to the then Twenty-ninth Precinct The great and only Alexander Williams was at the desk when the farmer walked in "Another bunco case," sighed Williams he glanced at the Serhe glanced at the Sergeant on duty.

When the farmer showed his credentials, Williams raised his eyebrows, looked at the farmer for a full minute and then remarked to the Sergeant: "Get on in his pockets. Guess we will break him in 8.4

on the Sixth avenue beat. If he don't put his uniform on him up."

"Suppose we keep him dressed up as he is and use him for special work," put and use him for special work," put in the Sergeant.

"No good," replied Williams, "for if we don't put the buttons on him he will either be run over or shanghaied."

More farmers are to be added to the police force, having passed a civil-service examination and being backed by the influence of rural Senators and Assemblymen. Here are the names of countrymen on the eligible list.

Henry Atwater, Chenanys Forks stock dealer. Henry Atwater, Chenango Forks, stock dealer.

Elmer E. Knapp, Haverstraw, salesman.
Egoert L. Hasbrouck, Bolsville, Ulster County. farmer. W. J. Callaghan, Highland, Uister County, lineman, Dennis Driscoll, Roslin, Queens County, telegraph operator.
Francis Timmerman, South Cairo, Greene County, farmer.

Democratic Majority in Virginia 3,160.

[SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.1] RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 29.—The State Board of Canvassers were engaged all day yesterday footing up the returns of the recent action and considering ontests. At a late hour last night the ngures showed that the Democratic vote in the State was 119,506, and Republican 119,330, a Democratic majority of 425. In the five counties in which the Democrata had no candidates for the House, the vote for Gov. Lee in 1855 was 3,352, and in the two counties in which the Republicans had no House candidates, Wise in the same year received 61s votes, making the estimated Democratic majority in the State 5,160.

Rent Gentility.

(From Puck.)

D'ye moinde, Mrs. Fitzpatrick, a young lad be the name of Pat M'Haffy was stoppin' along wid the Lynches about this time two year ago ?"

"An' is it the M'Haffys of Corrus, Sure an' I knew them well in the outle country, an' it's an ilegant family they are. The foliest family in that part of Orland, Mrs. O'Rafferty. What you might call the rale Oirish gintility. An' that young l'at is the divil's own non." A Little Girl in Hard Luck.

Nine-year-old Ann O'Keefe, of 552 East Thirty econd street, ran to meet her father on the stairs of her home last night, on his return from work. insone yesterday and sent to the lunatic saylum She tried to kiss him, when she lost her balance and fell down a flight of stairs. She sustained a compound fracture of the leg. The doctors think that an ampulation will be necessary. She was removed to Believue Hospital.

JUST DROPPED OUT OF SIGHT.

PRETTY MARY LYNN NEVER SEEN AFTER SHE STARTED FOR CHURCH.

Missing Just a Week To-Night-The Strange Disappearance of a Shop-Girl- Did She Walk into the River by Accident .- Once

Bloomingdale, but Believed to Have Fully Recovered Her Mental Health. The mystery surrounding the disappearance of pretty Mary J. Lynn, is to-day as deep as ever. It is just a week to-night since the girl bade her sister good night and started for the Seventh Avenue United Presbyterian Church. Since that time, kindred and friends have discovered nothing of her whereabouts. The theory was first advanced that she had fallen into evil hands, but that theory has gradually given way to others, equally plausible perhaps, but alike fruitless, Miss Lynn was young, modest, intelligent and unassuming, with a round, pretty face, big eyes and a lot of wavy, brown hair. She lived with her parents at 253 West Twentyfirst street, and was employed at Le Boutillier Brothers', West Twenty-third street. She was always full of fun and was always willing to share another's burden, however heavy it chanced to be.

Three years ago the young girl overworked herself, and as a consequence was stricken with malaria, her brain was affected and she spent a period in the Bloomingdale Asylum. After her discharge all her old animation seemed to return, and no indications were noticed of aberration of mind.

Tuesday evening Miss Lynn left home to visit her sister, Mrs. Fanny Kennedy, who lives at 514 West Twenty-first street. She remained there some time, and about 8 o'clock started for church to attend the singing-school, whither her sister Kate had previously gone. The missing girl was very religious and school, whither her sister Kate had previously gone. The missing girl was very religious and was exceedingly interested in her Sunday-school class, as well as in her musical work. The girl never reached the church. Anxious, yet not dreaming of what had happened, Kate hurried home, expecting to find her sister there, but she had not made her appearance; and from that hour father, mother and friends have been waiting, with an ever-increasing heart sickness, for some message from the missing one. When Mary left her sister's she was in good health, physically and mentally. Policemen on duty that night in the neighborhood say here were no suspicious persons around here nor did they hear of any accident. The there nor did they hear of any accident. The entire police force has been notified to look out forfthe girl, and the city hospitals have been searched but nothing has been learned. Where Mrs. Kennedy lives is but a short distance from the North River, and friends fear that in a moment of excitement the girl may have become confused, turned down the street towards the water instead of in the other direction, and, before she was aware of it, stepped to death in the river. Her outcries for help in that deserted district might well be unheard. So strongly is this theory entertained that guards have been stationed along shore, and the work of dragging the river is proposed.

The pleasant apartments occupied by Mrs. Lynn have now more the appearance of a

The pleasant apartments occupied by Mrs. Lynn have now more the appearance of a house where a wake is in progress than anything else, though, as one gray haired friend said, "If it were a wake one would know what to do and what one was doing; as it is, though, how terrible is it."

The mother and father, haggard and careworn, pace the narrow rooms incessantly. At each tingle of the bell they start, hoping that it may be the forerunner of welcome news concerning the missing daughter. that it may be the forerunner of welcome news concerning the missing daughter. When last seen the missing girl wore a dark cheviot dress, with light colored waist, trummed with blue braid; a black jacket, and a felt hat, trimmed with blue and white withen

BRUSSELS NET AND BULLION. The Dress Designed to do Killing Work for n Married Belle in Washington.

A gorgeous gown, fresh from the skilful fingers of one of Gotham's artistes modistes. and designed to do killing work this winter n Washington, is made of black Brussels net, richly embroidered in bullion and colored silks, draped over black moire antique This embroidery is dull rather than showy. and suggestive of none of the vulgarity of the gold lace and cheap tinsel effects now seen on many costumes, but it gathers all the light into itself and flings it back with a sort of glow as lovely as it is indescribable. The long train of moire is bordered with sort of glow as lovely as it is indescribable.

The long train of moire is bordered with full soft pliese supples of plain Brussels net, a tiny sache of the net finished the edge of the moire petticoat, but the drapery is entirely of the embroidered Brussels net and complete on the left bin in the graceful fashion tirely of the embroidered Brussels net and caught on the left hip in the graceful fashion known as a "Marguerite," it falls in glittering waves to the feet and is again drawn softly back under the folds of the rich train. The pointed corsage is half of moire, half of net, has a narrow "V" of the embroidery, and a Berthe of the plain Brussels net is carried in soft folds over the shoulders and down to a sharp, close point between the shoulders. The modest price paid for this charming The modest price paid for this charming creation by a married belle was $375, the piece of embroidered net which formed the drapery alone being estimated at $250.

Written On Hotel Registers. Col. James Forney, of the United States Marine Corps, is at the Oriental. Gen. Sylvester Dering and family occupy a suit of rooms at the Windsor.

ne Clarendon Hotel last evening. Senor Montufar, Secretary of the Guatemalan Legation at Washington, is a guest at the Victoria. United States Senator John Sherman, of Mans-eld, O., is one of the guests at the Fifth Avenue "Plunger" F. T. Walton, now of Philadelphia, booked" his name at the Fifth Avenue last evening.

Russian Minister Charles de Struve registered at the Charendon Hotel last evening.

At the Park Avenue are Carlos Wrenela, Mile. Josepa Wrenela, and Mme. M. Colonna, all of At the Brunswick: H. C. Pierce, of St. Louis; W. S. Wilkinson, of Baltimore, and Henry Craw-ford, of Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Tiff-ny, formerly of New York but of fare residents of New Mexico, are now at the Murray Hill Hotel.

Judge Alfred C. Coxe, of the United States Court for the Northern District of New York, is a guest at the New York Hotel. 6. G. Warren, of the Buffalo Commercial and Editor Norman E. Mack, of Buffalo, arrived at the St. James Hotel this morning.

The sutograph signature of John Dudley Ryder, of London, was placed upon the register of the Albemarle Hotel this morning.

Speaker Carlisle left this city at midnight for Washington. Mrs. Carlisle and her son, W. K. Carlisle, are still at the Glissey.

Congressman H. H. Bingham, of Philadelphia, and H. S. King, M. P., of London, are recently arrived Hoffman House guests.

Secretary of War Endloott arrived at the Fifth Avenue Hotel last evening, having been patters by his wife and daughter. Wm. L. Weber, of Saginaw, well known among raliroad mee, and D. w. Tomilason, a Batavia bank president, are registered at the Windsor. With others at the Fifth Avenue Hotel are: Ex-Congressman John H. Camp, of Lyons, N. Y.; ex-Assistant Sceretary of the Treasury Charles E. Coon, Gen. A. S. Buford, of Richmond; ex-Con-gressman J. H. Ramsey, of Albany, and Judge C. W. Fairbanks, of Indianspolis.

Thinks the Free List Will be Extended. [SPECIAL TO THE WORLD. 1

PITTEBURG, Nov. 29. -B. M. Cutcheon, Republican member of Congress for the Ninth Michigan District, was in the city this morning. Speaking of the tariff he said the free list would be extended, that lumber and sait would be placed thereon. He thought it probable that the internal revenue tax would be taken off to-bacco and liquors for medical purposes. He thinks Carlisle will be Speaker if he does not antagonize Handall. If he does this protection Democrats will cut his head off.